

151st Assembly for Bank Directors

“Located about an hour and a half from Calgary, Fairmont Banff Springs Hotel stands in stark and beautiful contrast to other modern and urban getaways. Built in the style of a Scottish castle, the hotel’s stone façade and pointed turrets provide a stately outline against the truly stunning natural beauty of the surrounding area — the Canadian Rockies and Spray and Bow Valleys.

Given the location’s emphasis on nature, it’s no wonder that the hotel boasts outdoor activities for every season. From cross-country skiing, dogsledding, ice fishing and more in the winter to canoeing, tennis, golf and more during the warmer spring and summer months, the stunning surrounding landscape is taken full advantage of.”

Certified Community Bank Director Program

The Certified Community Bankers Designation (CCBD) is a collaboration of and administered by the Independent Bankers Association of Texas (IBAT) and the SW Graduate School of Banking Foundation (SWGSB). This certification covers not only the regulatory and fiduciary responsibilities of bank directors, but also board processes and structures. In addition, the program focuses on what makes boards and directors effective as well as what is expected of them by regulators, examiners, and shareholders. Upon completion of all requirements, participants will be awarded a certificate and be allowed to use the CCBD designation. Requirements include additional education and signing of a code of ethics. The CCBD Program is for new directors, including those new to banking, as well as experienced directors looking to be certified on core director responsibilities and liabilities.

Assemblies for Bank Directors

The Assemblies for Bank Directors gather directors from throughout the country to discuss the latest updates on issues and strategies affecting the industry. The locations are majestic; the speakers are top-notch. Recent topics include corporate governance, risk management, banking laws and regulations, banking and the economy, insurance products, customer loyalty, time management, and the myths of globalization. The distinctive settings include The Greenbrier in West Virginia; the Four Seasons Resort Maui; the Banff Springs Hotel in Alberta, Canada; and Le Chateau Frontenac in Quebec City, Quebec. Guided by nationally-known speakers – from economist Ed Seifried and strategist John Oliver, to FDIC Chairman Donald Powell and former Vice Chairman of the Federal Reserve Alan S. Blinder – participants gain a keen understanding of what it means to be a bank director in the new millennium.

Outstanding Faculty

The Assemblies for Bank Directors offer exceptional instruction by industry specialists who literally “wrote the book” on the chosen topics. Their thorough understanding of the challenges – and strategies required to meet them – ensures clear, precise presentations that instruct as well as entertain. This is education at the corporate level, and we never lose sight of it.
